

ASPIRE THERAPEUTIC RIDING PRESENTS

Lynn Palm

Join us for a weekend dressage clinic

This nationally recognized clinician will be teaching a clinic on September 22 & 23, 2007 in addition to performing at Dances With Horses at the National Cattle Congress in Waterloo, Iowa.

Palm is a pioneer among women in the horse industry. For more than 30 years, she has championed the partnership of horse and rider, bringing her unique perspective to hundreds of thousands of horse enthusiasts around the world.

Palm has been named one of the top clinicians in the United States by Horse & Rider magazine and has been named the AQHA Female Equestrian of the Year by the Women's Athletic Association.

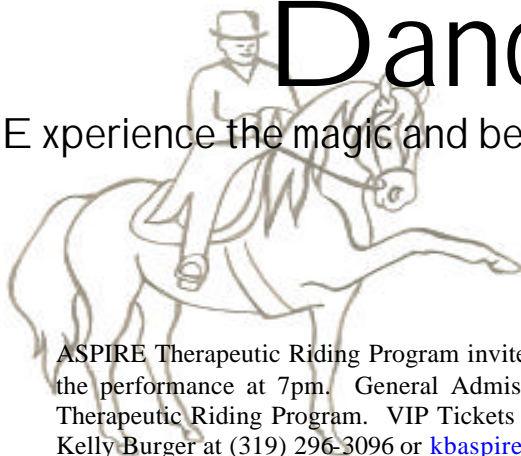

The clinic will be held 8am – 3pm September 22 & 23 at McElroy auditorium at Cattle Congress fair grounds. Riders for the clinic would pay $625. This cost does not include stall and bedding. However, this price does include lunch for both days as well as general admission to the Dances With Horses event. If you would like to audit the clinic a fee of $50 a day is required, this includes lunch.

To register for the clinic or for more information please contact Kelly Burger at (319) 296-3096 or kaspire@aol.com
